

Hypodermic Forest

Sadistik

Apartment windows look the same
Watching me from afar some blink when I walk by
The TV static sky spews light
While the blood on the sidewalk dries into carmine
Graffiti on my shell snake feeding on itself
All the people's paper mouths are exhaust pipes
Apartment windows look the same
Watching me from afar some blink when I walk by Rottweiler gargoyle dark stain motor oil
Fear replaced the brain with a wasp hive
Silverlake silhouettes dancing like they're vampires
Red chum enchanted by the moth light
Vagrant begs for change it never comes
Cardboard sign under bridge said only god saves
Stray dog lost concrete hypodermic forest
Slowly starts to crumble from the shockwaves
Tongue fungus killed the humdrum
Meteor shower nightmares projected in bizarre shapes
Blue-green marble rotating like an owl's head
Red meat locked up in a shark cage
Dream weaver sold broken mirrors
At the corner store dandelions left to reincarnate
False gods flag planted on the Sunset
Mockingbirds syncopated with the heart rate

I'll be
Everything
I'll be
Afraid to give yourself away
I'll be
Everything
I'll be
Afraid to give yourself away
