

With You

Sadistik

I am with you
As I have always been
And I will always be with you
I am with you
As I have always been
And I will always be with you

I'm with you, you're diamond I'm fish food
No island for my ship to drift to
Two eyelids that I lift when blissful
Kill the act let's feel true the real you
I'm still here, cut skin I'll spill blue
Igloo a dove sits in mildew
True to style I roll Ls with Love Witch
Inhuman child my soul felt too Dunwich
I Lovecrafting these dreams
David Lynch said to fish so it's catch and release
I got, broken feet and a crack in my wings
I walked, over needles to mask all the grief
I heard banshees in the wallpaper screaming my name
Seattle grays still remain but I'm seizing the days
Dollar signs turned people to change
All those moments lost in time like it's tears in the rain

I am with you
As I have always been
And I will always be with you
I am with you
As I have always been
And I will always be with you

I'm with you, you're ruby I'm tissue
There's beauty when cruelty is in tune
The shore's ours there's more stars to wish to
My four arms are for arms like Vishnu
I'm still here, with fault lines no excuse
Risked youth to quantize some grim views
Lost lives in chalk lines from miscues
Bottom line's I'm always right there with you
My eyes trickle with icicles of dyed liquors
Mind fickle signed sigils shining in bright pixels
The slight ripples grow inside my spine it's seismical
The nine nickel plated might hit you at my vigil
So why sickle all the fruits of my labor?
Changing water to merlot's my immutable nature
Marauder for fool's gold mistook the appearance
Mirages are two fold when you look in the mirror
You can draw a mural on my shed skin
Used to have heroes then I met them
Head spins devils hide possessions
Death grins by my bedside while I'm resting
Do you believe demons can save?
Seattle grays still remain but I'm seizing the days
Dollar signs turned people to change
When I'm a ghost that's lost in time you'll be hearing me say

I am with you

As I have always been
And I will always be with you
I am with you
As I have always been
And I will always be with you
I am with you
As I have always been
And I will always be with you
