

Kill Team

Sadus

We're gathered here it's no mistake to choose your metal fate
Sadus sane sounds insane, it's ripping through your brain
You hear the sound before you, the metal sound draws near
Our legions are advancing, death's your final prayer

We come to show no mercy, we came to kick some ass
Not in it for the glory, just to make the party last
So come on out and fuck with me, and be prepared to die
I'll stand up, give the command, you'll scream the battle cry

Trashing...The ones who want some more
Smashing...Their hands against the floor
Crushing...Them up against the stage
Kill Team...Terminating rage

Killing team makes you bleed
As your blood pours out upon the stage
You can't believe what you've seen
What has been the Sadus rage
Inflicting pain, going insane
Thrash the ones who make our way to live
We're all insane, so fuck you
If you don't like the way we play

Trashing...The ones who want some more
Smashing...Their hands against the floor
Crushing...Them up against the stage
Kill Team...Terminating rage

Killing team makes you bleed
As your blood pours out upon the stage
You can't believe what you've seen
What has been the Sadus rage

Trashing...The ones who want some more
Smashing...Their hands against the floor
Crushing...Them up against the stage
Kill Team...Terminating rage
