

The Shadow Inside

Sadus

One more disguise
It's the face of lies
I wear the mask of the prophet
I watch the fall, demise
One last look at freedom
This is the way they say
It's the face of a prophecy
To rule the way

One less day
Is just a heartbeat away
Laid out alive
Collapse of all the lines
Parting of the ways
Now I know it's here to stay
Welcoming me home
From a life I've never known

You are my shadow
You follow right behind
Helping me see
Through darkness into the light

Evil beside
The darkness can never hide
Watching inside
Everything wrong or right

Parting of ways
Yet you know I'm here to stay
Leave it alone
Everything to come is gone
Just me alone
Fire burns, the belief is gone
Welcoming me home
To a life I've never known

One more disguise
One more that lies
Is this the way, the future?
The face that they provide
Whispers of a quiet demise
Screams of pain you can't describe
Terror for a world afraid
Madness from the path they have laid

I am the shadow
The darkness inside the light
With evil beside
The darkness can never hide
