Paranoia, Ghosts & Other Sounds

SAFIA

I said that I won't run (x8)

Standing up on solid ground
The earth below my feet's still falling down
The whispers & the creaks aren't sounds
They're voices in my head
That still surround (Saying)

All that I needed
I need your love
They said time isn't waiting for you

All that I needed
I need your love
They said time isn't waiting for you

Close my eyes & count to ten
The walls on either side are closing in
Can you hear my thoughts right now
Oh paranoia, ghosts & other sounds (Saying)

All that I needed
I need your love
They said time isn't waiting for you

All that I needed
I need your love
They said time isn't waiting for you

I said that I won't run
I said to hold my tongue
And do I think aloud
Wait can you hear me now

I said that I won't run
I said to hold my tongue
And do I think aloud
Wait can you hear me now
