

Runaway

SAFIA

Oh, I hope to be
I hope to be a better man
To be a better man
So, I'll tell you openly there's things
That I don't understand
That I don't understand

Though I know, I know
To tell my heart, to just let go
When we look up
And wonder how
It feels like bliss, it feels like now

Oh, baby, let it all flood in
Live a little with a touch of skin
Runaway, runaway, runaway, run run runaway
Oh, baby, let it all flood in
Live a little with a touch of skin
Runaway, runaway, runaway, run run runaway

Oh, I hope to see
I hope to see the midnight sun
To see the midnight sun
While I'm loving openly
This story only just begun
It only just begun

Oh, baby, let it all flood in
Live a little with a touch of skin
Runaway, runaway, runaway, run run runaway
Oh, baby, let it all flood in
Live a little with a touch of skin
Runaway, runaway, runaway, run run runaway

Did you ever wanna runaway
Did you ever wanna runaway

(I know my heart let go)
(Look up and down feel love around)

Oh, baby, let it all flood in
Live a little with a touch of skin
Runaway, runaway, runaway, run run runaway
Oh, baby, let it all flood in
Live a little with a touch of skin
Runaway, runaway, runaway, run run runaway

Did you ever wanna runaway
Did you ever wanna runaway
