

The Now

SAFIA

Maybe your entire life is a kind of dream?

Are you always out of rhythm?
Are you hesitant or buried with doubt?
Are you plagued by indecision?
Are you scared to take a different route?

Ooh, I hope one day you figure it out
'Cause there ain't nothing more than the now
I hope one day you figure it out

It's true, call it like you see it
It's true, like water in the roots of a flower
It's true, you're always so defeated
It's true that you get better hour by hour

Ooh, I hope one day you figure it out
'Cause there ain't nothing more than the now
I hope one day you figure it out
(I hope one day you figure it out)
(I hope one day you figure it out)

I try to float above the static
I try, but colder words keep pulling me south
Each time gets more and more erratic
Each time, I seem to lose my heads in the clouds
Oh my, always so dramatic
Oh my, gravity keeps holding me down

Guess there ain't nothing more than the now
I hope one day I figure that out
I hope one day I figure that out
I hope one day I figure that out

Sometimes I think it's more than a feeling
I think deep down it's the truth
I think it's more than a feeling
And some day it will come back for you
Sometimes I think it's more than a feeling
I think deep down that's the truth
I think it's more than a feeling
And some day it will come back for you

Some day it will come back for you
Some day it will come back for you
Some day it will come back for you
Some day it will come back for you
