SAFIA

Getting old a little lighter
Another season passing by
Everything fades away to yesteryear
Away from here, away from here, you know

Every second you got tied up
Close the door or made your mind up
Maybe it's obvious and overdue
You're wanting more but not

Today
Today
Today
Today

It's bittersweet, it's been a while
I don't need a reason why
Eventually everything comes into view
A way for you, a way for you to see

That time will slip away
You're reaching
For something more and not today

Today
Today
Today
Today

Today
(Whenever you like)
Today
(Wherever you are)
Today
(Whenever you like)
Today

Today
Today
Today
Today

Today
(Whenever you like)
Today
(Wherever you are)
Today
(Whenever you like)
Today
