

Together, Locked Safely

SAFIA

You'll never hold me again,
You don't care about it.
You never called me a friend.
You, forget about it.

I love this,
You love no.
Stare blankly
Stumble through the praise,
Lead it slow.
At least it's not a tether though,
Strings attached to stone.

You'll never hold me again.
You'll never know
What I've been staring down it.
Why don't you care about it?
You'll never hold me again.
Why don't you care about it?

Cause we can be together, locked safely.
Together, locked safely.

And I love this,
You love no.
And it's broken,
Tell me all the things I don't know.
I hope it's regrettable,
That you've got in your bones.

You'll never hold me again.
You'll never know
What I've been staring down it
Why don't you care about it?
You'll never hold me again.
Why don't you care about it?

Cause we can be together, locked safely.
Together, locked safely.

You'll never hold me again.
You'll never know,
What I've been staring down it.
Why don't you care about it?

You'll never hold me again.
Why don't you care about it?

You'll never hold me again.
You'll never know,
What I've been staring down it.
Why don't you care about it?

You'll never hold me again.
Why don't you care about it?
