

Breakdown

Sahara Hotnights

Everything's still the same, mind in the pouring rain starting to be a pain, could I :. spinning right out of sight, out of the dreadful light feeling like :. and shout, you can't fix it

Falling to pieces hey, my name will save the day
:. what they say, hang ups let down wish I could clean it out, wish I was out of sight dead end is coming up, one more :.

Breakdown, I could need another getaway Breakdown, are we always gonna stay the same Breakdown, I could use another brand new day

Caught by a million rules, you haven't got a clue what I am going through, smashing adults I have you figured out, know what you're all about I got the picture right, I can't stand it that's where I'll keep away
