

Secrets

Sahara Hotnights

Secrets I give to strangers
Stories I hide from you
From places I never mention
With friends you never knew

I'm gonna keep my mouth shut
'cause whenever I try to speak
You wonder where the hell my mind's at

(Why don't you?)

I'm not gonna say it
(C'mon, c'mon)
I'm not gonna say it
(C'mon, c'mon)

It gets too much attention
When I'm transparent and true
I wanna save you some anger
And the look of being pout

Let me have my fun
Let me keep their hopes up
Feel a little wanted once in a while
Not knowing where the hell my mind's at
