

Affection

Said The Sky

Might not be the time to break the silence
Might not be the place to reel you in
But let me catch all your tears like tiny diamonds
May be the last time you'll fall for this again

Oooh who am I
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection
Oooh it's do or die
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection

Oooh who am I
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection
Oooh it's do or die
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection

I pull you in closer til we buckle
Eye contact so strong we'll never break
Cause I spend the day right here counting all your freckles
Even though I know it's been sixteen since may

Oooh who am I
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection
Oooh it's do or die
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection

Oooh who am I
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection
Oooh it's do or die
I am not the one to love you
Though I am to give you affection

Want to give you, want to give you all my affection
Want to give you, want to give you all my
And I want to give you, want to give you all my affection
Want to give you, want to give you all my
