

Treading Water

Said The Sky

Am I the only one who's tryna to keep us floating
Am I the only one who's tryna to stay alive
Am I the only one who's holding on to hoping
Is there anything that I can say to change your mind
If that would make you happy
If that would make it right
Then I will be the first to apologize

I'm sorry for breathing
I'm sorry for dreaming
I'm sorry for everything I do
Cause I'm treading water
Can't hold on much longer
I'm sorry for ever loving you
Ooh-oh, oh-oh-oo
Ooh-oh, oh-oh-oo
I'm sorry for ever loving you

Is this the only way you're gonna listen to me
When I'm almost out of air and I can hardly speak
Is this is the only way that we can solve our problems
By letting every issue drag us down into the deep
If that would make you happy
If that would make it right
Then I will be the first to apologize

I'm sorry for breathing
I'm sorry for dreaming
I'm sorry for everything I do
Cause I'm treading water
Can't hold on much longer
I'm sorry for ever loving you
Ooh-oh, oh-oh-oo
Ooh-oh, oh-oh-oo
I'm sorry for ever loving you

'Cause I'm treading water
Can't hold on much longer
I'm sorry for ever loving you
