

Kate Moon

Said the Whale

It's a long dark
But the moon is full tonight
You're so at peace
I want to paint you in this light
You're so beautiful in this light
And there's a warm wind blowing
Sweetness in the air

And we were young drunk swimming
We were lovers of the ocean
Of the ocean
Sun-stripped, naked, staring summer in the knees
We were blind love running up a mountain of devotion
Of devotion
We were dumb luck tripping over forest fire debris

(And in a beautiful way)
There's a cool breeze whispering
Something in my heart
(Some thing)
Something in my heart
Some thing
Something in my heart
Some thing, some thing
Something in my heart

And all that time you spent
And all that time that we spent
And all that time that I spent
Watching you go

You take a part of me
I see the moon in your eyes
You take a part of me, right
I see the moon in your eyes...
I see the moon in you
You're painted in her light
