

Definitions from Bryonn Bain

Saigon

Aiyyo yo yo yo yo
There go that brother Bryonn Bain
Man I heard he speak knowledge
Talk to 'em

I was reincarnated to be incarcerated in this cage called flesh
Released on probation only through meditation
But meditation was a Morse code made for men on the other side of the tracks
In the arm of a heroine committing heresy against himself
And I was by myself in the womb, like I was by myself in my tom b
I died free, cause I couldn't live like a slave
Now I'm back from the grave in a rage to get mine cause I be divine Say what? Said I be divine, not just some ebonic line
Check my EKG sign, you'll see a circle, not a line
Cause I transcend space and time
I transcend space and send space and sent space back in time
