

Reincarnation (feat. Bryonn Bain)

Saigon

Bryonn Bain:

Definitions are for definers and not for the defiant

Definitions are for definers and not for the divine

Definitions definitely ain't divine

You can't define anything divine with any definition you can find

What you can find is a long line of defiant

as a definitively lost in mind

Been tryin to define my black behind since before the beginning of, time

Since I sold Earth's solid gold and told her son to shine

Made the moon swoon with the swig of her own moonshine

She still can't walk a straight line anymore

She stumbles in circular motion shaking even the ocean's floor

Back and forth and forth and back

She gets so dizzy she sees, black

She gets too dizzy everything goes black

And once you go black you never go, back

Word, once you go black word you never go backward

You only go black-ward

And the blackest word I ever heard is WE

So I turned it upside-down and use it interchangably, with ME
