

One Drink Too Many

Sailor

Well

The table is set

The candles are lit

And there's the knock on the door

Boy! She's looking pretty

All dressed up

Now who could have wished for more

Yes

We wine and dine and all was fine

Knowing that she was game

But then I went and really spoiled it all

By filling up my glass again

(For) one drink too many took the smile right off of her face

One lousy drink too many took the girl right out of my place

Well

I tried to talk her out of going home

But instead I fell flat on the floor

And all I remember is a great big bang

I guess she must have slammed the door

Well a couple of days and a hangover later

She gave me one more chance

But only if I took her to "Chez Maxim"

For a fancy dinner and dance

So we came to seek

Cheek to cheek

That moment we'd known before

But then I went and did it all again

By filling up my glass once more

(For) one drink too many took the smile right off of her face

One lousy drink too many took the girl right out of that place

Well

I tried to talk her out of going home

But instead I fell flat on the floor

And all I remember is a 'cha-cha-cha'

With the bouncers at the door

Yes

We came to seek

Cheek to cheek

That moment we'd known before

But then I went and did it all again

By filling up my glass once more

(For) one drink too many took the smile right off of her face

One lousy drink too many took the girl right out of that place

Yes

I tried to talk her out of going home

But instead I fell flat on the floor

I guess I need to work it out again like keeping myself ashore
