

Chasing The Light

Saint Asonia

Another day on a homicide
Another ray through a broken window
No evidence of an alibi
Hiding in the shadows
Looking for some kind of spark
I'm not sure if it really matters
Just a beat in a broken heart
Unhappy ever after

Alive, can't breathe
I run, but can't reach
I look but I can't see

Am I wasting my time
Do I give up the fight
Am I losing my grip
When the day feels like night
Do I let it all go
Do I keep it inside
Am I out here alone
Am I wasting my time
Chasing the light
Chasing the light

Looking up at a sky of scars
Looking out for a life worth saving
No evidence of who we are
For who we end up facing

Alive, can't breathe
I run, but can't reach
I look but I can't see

Am I wasting my time
Do I give up the fight
Am I losing my grip
When the day feels like night
Do I let it all go
Do I keep it inside
Am I out here alone
Am I wasting my time
Chasing the light

I'm chasing the hope
I'm chasing the truth
In a world that's so cold
Chasing the life
That we used to know
I'm chasing what's already
Out of control

Am I wasting my time
Do I give up the fight
Am I losing my grip
When the day feels like night
Do I let it all go
Do I keep it inside

Am I out here alone
Am I wasting my time
Chasing the light
Chasing the light

Am I wasting my time
Do I give up the fight
Am I losing my grip
When the day feels like night
Do I let it all go
Do I keep it inside
Am I out here alone
Am I wasting my time
Chasing the light
