The Fallen

Saint Asonia

I remember the way it felt Your voice inside my head Like an ocean crashing waves punching through my hull And the day I tried to live I understood it all Where are you, where are you, where are you now? It's the way life goes When we awaken we get taken No one knows No I don't believe it, I can't believe it I sing for the fallen I sing for the fallen I sing for the fallen You had so much left to say Fighting for your life someway Now your memory is crawling in my skin all day Where are you, where are you, where are you now? It's the way life goes When we awaken we get taken

No one knows No I don't believe it, I can't believe it

It's the way life goes When we awaken we get taken No one knows No I don't believe it, I can't believe it

I sing for the fallen I sing for the fallen I sing for the fallen

It's the way life goes When we awaken we get taken No one knows No I don't believe it, I can't believe it

It's the way life goes When we awaken we get taken No one knows No I don't believe it, I can't believe it
