

Deception

Saint Deamon

The seal has been broken, and the answer revealed Truth will be spoken, the future is here

You ask for forgiveness, one last time
All these years, I have been deceived
We made a decision, to leave it alone
Now it is my time, to show that I can stand alone

You know why and what in my heart, but pieces of me just keeps
falling apart
Time went by I just stand no clue, this lie and deception was a ll about you

I've led and misguided, for so many years
All the trust that I've had then, has now disappeared

You ask for forgiveness, one last time
All these years, I have been deceived
We made a decision, to leave it alone
Now it is my time to show that I can stand alone

falling apart
Time went by I just stand no clue, this lie and deception was a ll about you

[Solo]

falling apart
Time went by I just stand no clue, this lie and deception was a ll about you
