

The Deamon Within

Saint Deamon

Give me the list of targets, the enemy will be shut down
In the dark of the night, they won't even know I'm here
Become the prey of my hunt, one hit and the light will blow out
Sent here to carry out orders, leaving a trail of death

Deceiving the brothers you once knew, under command
There's no turning back
Silently I will control you, in the darkness I attack

Feelings are burning inside of me,
Show me the path where it ends
The souls of my victims are haunting me, I wish I was free
From the deamon within

They say that I am the evil, a man with no heart in his chest
Even the toughest would shiver, meeting the killing hand

Deceiving the brothers you once knew, under command
There's no turning back
Silently I will control you, in the darkness I attack

Feelings are burning inside of me,
Show me the path where it ends
The souls of my victims are haunting me, I wish I was free

Feelings are burning inside of me,
Show me the path where it ends
The souls of my victims are haunting me, I wish I was free
From the deamon within
