

Stevie

Saint Etienne

I have adored for so long
And the vibrations are so strong
You make me feel like I belong

And when the Sun goes down so slow
Evening shadows seem to grow
I'm waiting here for you alone

Walking closer in my dreams
Closer everyday it seems
Taking care of all the ordinary things

Yes, I know you're one of a kind
It's OK, come inside my mind
You might be surprised what you find
