

james (bleeding alone)

Saint Harison

If you ever decide it's over
Don't be sad if I don't move on Just in case you find someone better
And there's nothing here for you

Just know that I, I will never change this room
It will always feel like home to you
And if you need me or don't
Just promise me you'll call if you're bleeding alone

(Ah-ah) Yeah

And despite conversations, hmm
I'll always be your friend
I ain't going nowhere
Maybe I'm just thinking too far (Too far) too far ahead (Too far)
But still far enough away
And some actions I can't change, oh, baby

I, I will never change this room
It'll always feel like home to you
And if you need me or don't
Just promise me you'll call if you're bleeding alone

Oh
