

Undecided

SAINT JHN

Can I lay here tonight if your feelings start to finally feel the same
I know you're undecided, and it's private

You got dressed up tonight, not for no reason
Girl, it's your season, a beautiful demon
We bless up tonight, I pledge allegiance
Such an achievement, oh-oh-oh-oh
Some go cold, holdin' me close
You let me go, my dear
You see all my fears
No need to stroke, you're no alone
I know you're nervous, been searchin' for perfect

And I don't think anyone should ever feel left out
I would die to taste things that I never taste
I no longer hesitate
Feelin' how it like to trust
Truth is I ain't never been this close to Heaven's Gate
Baby, but the devil made me, nowhere

Can I lay here tonight if your feelings start to finally feel the same
I know you're undecided, I'm not rushin' you at all
I'm sayin'-
Can I lay here tonight if your feelings start to finally feel the same
I know you're undecided and it's private

Fuck your heart, I want your body
Fuck the room, I'm in the lobby
You stressed, you need some pilates
Darling, that nani was sobby
I woke up in a Ferrari
You drink the
I am way closer, I'm sorry
Moments of moment, I stop that
Here's my emotional theory
I shouldn't carry, I carry
Better to fight with the jury
I've been lost, I've been gone, I'm unsure
I'm out marks, I'm too blunt, I'm on tour

And I don't think anyone should ever feel left out
I would die to taste things that I never taste
I no longer hesitate
Feelin' how it like to trust
Truth is I ain't never been this close to Heaven's Gate
Baby, but the devil made me, nowhere

Can I lay here tonight if your feelings start to finally feel the same
I know you're undecided, I'm not rushin' you at all
I'm sayin'-
Can I lay here tonight if your feelings start to finally feel the same
I know you're undecided and it's private
