Baby, this is way better than a FaceTime
Nine-hour difference but you still mine, uh
And I don't usually like to waste time
But you can waste mine, you can waste mine, uh

I'm inspired by the way your daughter walks in the room
Heads start turning when they smell the perfume
You should be proud, auntie, look at her go
In two more years, I'll have my knee on the floor
'Cause I don't want a Grammy, I want a family
Four daughters, one son, why you laughing?
I want a house on the hills on the coast of Brazil
Baby, could you be the one? (Yeah, I can be)

You understand me, uh
So you know that I don't really wanna take you to Miami
I'd rather go Tunisia and just turn off our phones
Oublie l'Amérique, on f'ra un vrai tour du monde

J'ai eu le privilège de rêver cet été
Le problème c'est que j'savais pas confesser que je t'aimais
Donc chérie, j't'ai laissée
J'ai promis à mon frère de pas m'arrêter
La différence c'est que je suis et toi tu étais
Tu suis et puis tu follow, pourquoi t'es toujours pressé?
Apprécie ce que tu as au lieu d'la jouer à faire le stressé
Et moi je taffais solo pendant qu'vous sortiez fêter
Mon pays sur mon dos, et bébé, j'les ai tous fait rêver

Girl, I said
You know what you mean to me
I know just who you could be
But don't you go
Girl, I said
You know what you mean to me
You know what you need and it isn't me

But baby, this is way better than a FaceTime
Nine-hour difference but you still mine
And I don't really like to waste time
But you can waste mine, you can waste mine
Baby, this is way better than a Facetime
Nine-hour difference but you still mine
And I don't usually like to waste time
But you can waste mine, you can waste mine
