

Here And There

Saint Levant

Baby, see me
Need you to see me, why won't you see me?
Girl, come see me
I've been running rounds, rounds, rounds around the world
And I can't stop
These days I know I won't back up
These days I know I won't stop it
These days I wanna be more (be more), oh, more
You said you wanna find yourself (find yourself)
Said you wanna find yourself more
But instead, you are wasting time, here and there

That's why I never let my past go
Even though it's blank pages on the passport
She doesn't like seeing the fast growth
But time moves slowly on the glass boats

So many lows when I go look back
Nobody knows what I burn in ash
The life I left outside baby
Can't back out here this they can't save me
I never meant to be this way
I was supposed to be in class on my A game
And my daddy doesn't understand what I do
Running two tracks loud like a haiku

Third culture kid, the world and God gave me options
One way flight I'm taking the nonstop trip
Which city do I wanna go and get lost in?
Which city do I wanna go and get lost in?

Third culture kid, the world and God gave me options
One way flight I'm taking the nonstop trip
Which city do I wanna go and get lost in?
Which city do I wanna go and get lost in?

He was here
He was there
He would fit anywhere
In the city
By the sea
And it's coming back to me
