

Wait & See

Saint Motel

This cacophony is a symphony
Blood-soaked fantasy, fever dream
From the dawn of man, heading back again
Are we at the end, kerosene?

And everything is gonna be exactly what you wanna see
Peace and love and harmony or the end of society
Either way, stick around before they start to burn it down
Quiet is the purest sound, but I still hear screaming

Alright, baby
It'll be alright, just you wait and see
It'll be alright, maybe
It's gonna be real tight, just you wait and see

Charming sycophant, kinda into it
Skinny elephant in the room
Making fun of them, but you're one of them
Sleek and elegant doom and gloom

And everything is gonna be exactly what you wanna see
Peace and love and harmony or the end of society
Either way, stick around 'fore they start to burn it down
Quiet is the purest sound, but I still hear screaming

Alright, baby
It'll be alright, just you wait and see
It'll be alright, maybe
It's gonna be real tight, just you wait and see

It's gonna be alright, baby
It'll be alright, just you wait and see
It's gonna be alright, maybe
It's gonna be real tight, just you wait and see, yeah

It'll be alright, baby
It's gonna be real tight, just you wait and see
