

I break bread with the best of them
I been everywhere, I'm the envy
Throwing stones at the glass houses
I've been in there too, I've been in there

Take a swing at it
Make a thing out it
If you blink you might miss
Sticks and stones, they may
Break my bones, they say
Just the game that we play

I'm seeing red, you're dead
If you're not ready yet
Tonight, 'cause I'm
Alive

Let's go, it's about to blow
Kicking out your speaker
Are you ready for a war?
On your knees, you better believe
So go tell everybody I'm the best you've ever seen
Let's go, let's go

Turning heads, I keep testing this
Yeah, the knives are out
They won't hurt me
Suffocating off these imitators
I smoke them out
I provoke them

Take a swing at it
Make a thing out it
If you blink you might miss
Sticks and stones, they may
Break my bones, they say
Just the game that we play

I'm seeing red, you're dead
If you're not ready yet
Tonight, 'cause I'm
Alive

Let's go, it's about to blow
Kicking out your speaker
Are you ready for the war?
On your knees, you better believe
So go tell everybody I'm the best you've ever seen

Let's go, let's go (Let's go, let's go)
Let's go (Let's go, let's go)
Let's go (Let's go, let's go)
Let's go (Let's go, let's go)
Let's go

Let's go, it's about to blow

Are you ready for the war?
Let's go, let's go

Put my hands, put my hands out
Anything, anything, yeah
