

Red Brake Lights

SAINT PHNX

Red brake lights another rainy day
Rest my head against the window pain
I'm lost in thought thinking of you again
Tell you something that'll never change

We both feel it
So why we picking up the pieces
Two hearts bleeding out

Never been a fool for love
But you're the one I'm thinking of
Oh, what I'd give to feel your touch
Until we meet again, my love, my love

Coffee spills down on a paper plate
My heart beats faster when I hear your name
To see your face is like a waiting game
Tell you something that'll never change

We both feel it
So why we picking up the pieces
Two hearts bleeding out

Never been a fool for love
But you're the one I'm thinking of
Oh, what I'd give to feel your touch
Until we meet again, my love, my love

Until we meet again
Until we meet again
Until we meet again
Until we meet again, my love, my love

Never been a fool for love
But you're the one I'm thinking of
Oh, what I'd give to feel your touch
Until we meet again, my love, my love

I guess I'm just a fool for love
But there's somethings you can't give up
Forever wouldn't be enough
Until we meet again, my love, my love

Until we meet again
Until we meet again
Until we meet again
Until we meet again, my love, my love
Until we meet again
