

Love This Way

Saint Raymond

It's funny what life does
When your heads in the sand
You hide from the battle
You're losing it
It's funny what lust does
When your hearts in the clouds
Crossing our wires
And we're fusing now

Tell myself, that you're never at home
Tell myself, that I'm better alone
Trying to find a reason
But I'm all out of reasons
You tell yourself you're better alone
Don't fool yourself, cos we both know
We don't need a reason
To stop

I don't wanna call this love
But I don't wanna call it time
Even though it hurts the most
When I'm by your side
We're slaves to the cycle
That never ends
Will we ever break these chains
Or do we just love this way?

It's funny what time does
When you're waiting around
The pendulum stops
And your heart slows down
Do we care if it hurts?
Every time that we touch
With a slip of the tongue
We're in trouble now

Tell myself, that you're never at home
Tell myself, that I'm better alone
Trying to find a reason
But I'm all out of reasons
Tell yourself you're better alone
Don't fool yourself, cos we both now
We don't need a reason
To stop

I don't wanna call this love
But I don't wanna call it time
Even though it hurts the most
When I'm by your side
We're slave to the cycle
That never ends
Will we ever break these chains
Or do we just love this way?

The writings on the wall for us
We design our own mistakes
No lessons learnt, no boundries

Can we straighten out our twisted fate

I don't wanna call this love
When I'm by your side
That never ends
Keep ignoring the warnings
As we fall again
Will we ever break these chains
Or do we just love this way?
