

Home

Saint Saviour

Paid the messenger
Hid my face
Slow and steady now
Wins the race
It all boils down
To who bleeds out
Find my meaning
Tween these stones
Til evenfall

Sure and silent
Through shallow water
We go glidin'
To where the wall begins
But don't you send a wind
Time for keeping still
Breathe the morning in
Fisher king calls out
Stolen treasure
Got to get her home

I broke promises
You forgave
You saw good in me
Made me saint
We carved our names
In silver rings
Molten down by
Gentle hands
A bed for her to land

Sure and silent
Through shallow water
We go glidin'
To where the wall begins
But don't you send a wind
Time for keeping still
Breathe the morning in
Fisher king calls out
Stolen treasure
Got to get her home