

Causing Trouble

Saint Sister

Came by to tell me how you've changed
You got a new girl, she keeps you sane
And you don't think of me like that
I hold the moment in the gap
But honey, I know you
We dance to Elvis in the kitchen
At least we used to
And honey, you know me
We danced from Belfast to the Basin
When you sang and it stoned me
Well, it stoned me

You, on the blue carpet
We swapped bodies for a while
What was I doing all of those years?
Causing trouble I hear
Causing trouble I hear

You said, "Darling, it's a shame"
Was I intent on staying strange?
Take that car out of my garden
We should have left it on the island
Honey, I know you
Doesn't that count for something?
At least I used to

You, on the blue carpet
We swapped bodies for a while
What was I doing all of those years?
Causing trouble I hear
Causing trouble I hear
