

Steady

Saint Sister

This call is just a small thing to you
And I am just a phase you're going through
This shade of blue nearly makes me want to stay, stay, stay
Another girl
Another day

"It was the weekend we arrived, I think-late February, early March-and my socks had soaked right through, my only shoes no match for the snow that so thickly coated all the pavements that everything, even horror, turned to magic"

Keep me 'cause I'm steady
Like the salt that's spilt and sold
Keep me 'cause I'm steady
Where the blue gives into gold

Let's call this what it is, the colours are moving
It crossed my mind to watch the light we were losing
This shade of you nearly makes me want to stay, stay, stay
Another girl
Another day

"Yet in those first weeks, time seemed to have frozen. The city felt familiar though I knew next to nothing about it. We had landed, it seemed, in the landscape of a dream, yours or mine do you reckon"

Keep me 'cause I'm steady
Like the salt that's spilt and sold
Keep me 'cause I'm steady
Where the blue gives into gold

"Let's go sit by the canal you said, let's watch the ripples widen"

Steady
Like the salt that's spilt and sold
Steady
Where the blue gives into gold
Keep me 'cause I'm steady
Like the salt that's spilt and sold
Keep me 'cause I'm steady
Where the blue gives into gold
