

He Reigns

Saint

After this I saw four angels
Holding back winds of the earth in the sky
Another with the seal of God to place upon the chosen
The number that I heard was magnified

They say

Salvation belongs to our God and to the Lamb who was slain
Salvation belongs to our God, He paid the price and now He reigns

After this I saw a multitude
From every tongue and tribe, all dressed in robes
They stood before the throne
And on their faces, they praised Him
The mighty Lamb who sits upon the throne

They say

Salvation belongs to our God and to the Lamb who was slain
Salvation belongs to our God, He paid the price and now He reigns

Who is this God who stretched the heaven
The universe His throne and the martyrs sang

They say

Salvation belongs to our God and to the Lamb who was slain
Salvation belongs to our God, He paid the price and now He reigns
