

Hero

Saint

(If I could change the past, would I be who you see?
As I re-live the past the chains keep haunting me)

To live a sinner's life and sin is all I see
And still You turn Your face on someone just like me

Hero, Hero
Between the thunder and the night
The Hero comes, the Hero saves
The Hero brings new life

Oh, when I see the path as life's toughing at me
Will I be free at last? Finally free of me?
To live a sinner's life, yeah, sins consuming me
And there Your blood pours out to someone just like me

Hero, Hero
Between the thunder and the night
The Hero comes, the Hero saves
The Hero brings new life /x4

Hero, Hero (x3)
