

We All Stand

Saint

No way
I'm given up, I'll chase the final day
A path
Before me now. Is there to light my way?
In Him
I'm given all, I'll give it all away
You know
I'm living on for all eternity

We all stand for the everlasting King
Raising our hand to the throne
Blessed be to the One who set me free
Praises to Him all alone

Right now
The time is right, the season's bout to change
On us
The Son has set, a harvest on the way
We stand
We hold it all until the coming day
We are
Dressed and robed, a bride for Him to save

We all stand for the everlasting King
Raising our hand to the throne
Blessed be to the One who set me free
Praises to Him all alone /x3
