

Alone

Sainté

Yeah, yeah

I've been out here, I've been on a road
I can't decide if I like being alone
'Cause I can't live this life I live alone
'Cause I wear confidence in all my clothes, in all my clothes
I hold the Bible in my right hand
In all my clothes I sent a million to my right hand
I told my ex I really pray she finds a right man
'Cause that's just something that she knows
And I know she ain't a hoe, I just had to get this money 'cause
I like bands

Yo

It's been a minute since I kicked it with my brother [?]
Dropped out of school and told my parents I'ma get them right
Got some rolls, they in [?], my bad I'm late on time Haven't changed but if I do I'll put the blame on life
'Cause underground rappers don't make music, tryna speak they m ind
Clout heavy shawties in this room, but I'm just keeping mine
I rap to this music so my next girl - I can change her life and treat her right
Laughing out my ex, she thought she left me for a sweeter life

I've been out here, I've been on a road
I can't decide if I like being alone
'Cause I can't live this life I live alone
'Cause I wear confidence in all my clothes, in all my clothes
I hold the Bible in my right hand
In all my clothes I sent a million to my right hand
I told my ex I really pray she finds a right man
'Cause that's just something that she knows
And I know she ain't a hoe, I just had to get this money 'cause
I like bands
