

Envy Me

Sainté

Ay, I want my money flow to come steep
Man I grind all day, including my nights, man I do this all week
Ay, sorry but I can't step out right now, baby girl, 'cause I'm with my team
Yeah, and I'm out here grinding
Just call me an MVP
Ay, and for that reason I know there's guys out there that really envy me, why?
'Cause I chase this P
Eat, grind, sleep, repeat

Stack this money up with my team, why?
7 bruddas that's really my team
Same old bruddas from the earlier teens
Years go by but we're still close G's
Years go by but we're still close G's
Ay, double F, man that's Fendi
My darling cute, she in Fenty
She wanna pull in that Bentley
I told her chill and hold it down
Know then drops, they cost plenty
Soon come the whips and the buss downs
I don't flex, but just gently
The garms I get are too many
The team I rep are too shelly
The bars I got are too hot (Too hot)
Too hot in here come like Nelly
I got the watch I need rocks
Different colours just like jelly
Soon be up on your telly babe
Soon be up on your telly

Wait
She want a guy
That she can flex up with
That she can rest up with
She can live her best life with
Do up the tour life with
Live up the whole life with
Live up the whole life with

Money come steep
Man I grind all day, including my nights, man I do this all week
Sorry but I can't step out right now, baby girl, 'cause I'm with my team
And I'm out here grinding, just call me the MVP
And for that reason I know there's guys out there that really envy me

Envy me
Envy me
Lookin' like the MVP
Out here livin' with the bro JB
