

It's been couple days away I'm tryina get paid
I'm all in your face you hate when I leave the crib but
Baby go wait I'm heading right back
I know what you want some what the money in bunch
I'm 'cheffing I'm cooking you lunch but why can't you see I'm all you need

Yeah, just have a little faith in me
Just have a little faith in me you'll see
Yeah, have a little faith in me
Just have a little faith in me

We stay out for dinner that's two for the liver
I swear that's a killer I'll pay for your ride
I'll take you to mine I'll show you the flavours of wine
I'll play you some genuine wine or maybe some Chardonnay
You tryina get nasty, I'll take you to west got me flexing like Kanye
But we do it our way got up for the art play
Yeah, right

Just have a little faith in me
Just have a little faith in me you'll see
Yeah, look what you've done
Look what you've done
Look what you've done to me

And you want a jigga that's getting you figures
That sound like Sainte, what can I say
I just been riding a wave that tries to make you feel the way
That's home and away and I flex by the lay
You tryina listen to Drake, I wanna know 'bout your day
The smile on your face that pray on that you never waste
I'm tryina take you to a place
Wait yeah, I wanna know how you feel are you being for real
I wanna know if you're the deal it's more than an internet reel
I'm tryina BB like Shaquille
I can cover any bill I'm keeping it trill
Money making for the will, money making say for real

It's been couple days away I'm tryina get paid
I'm all in your face you hate when I leave the crib but
Baby go wait I'm heading right back
I know what you want some what the money in bunch
I'm 'cheffing I'm cooking you lunch but why can't you see I'm all you need

Yeah, just have a little faith in me
Just have a little faith in me you'll see
Yeah, look what you've done, just have a little faith in me
Just have a little faith in me you'll see

I'm heading right back
I'm heading right back
Yeah
