Young & Reckless

Sak Noel

Baby, yeah
Baby, yeah

She's going out 'cause she lives for the weekend
No one can stop her or tell her any different
She'll grab her friends and descend, they'll all be at it by 10
She doesn't know how this night will end

She got that makeup, it's caking up on her face and she's saying
That baby, this is my life and I swear to God I'm not playing
I'm just swaying off of this liquor, thoughts of you get me sicker
I burnt every damn picture of you, baby, just get me out of here

Baby, yeah
We're YOUNG & RECKLESS
Living this life like you should
Baby, yeah
We're good at it, girl
But always up to no good
Baby, yeah
Yeah, the spark in your eye that set my heart on fire
SO YOUNG AND SO DAMN RECKLESS

She walks in and the chills are felt
Touch her wine and your body will melt
She's got those stiletto heels
Check out the curves and that sex-appeal!

Popping bottles with models
Gucci, Fendi, Louis, Prada
She don't really care, no nada
Living reckless in full throttle
She got a guy but he ain't here tonight
She'll do what it takes to feel alright
Take her away, she's out of sight
I'll take her on

Baby, yeah
We're YOUNG & RECKLESS
Living this life like you should
Baby, yeah
We're good at it, girl
But always up to no good
Baby, yeah
Yeah, the spark in your eye that set my heart on fire
SO YOUNG AND SO DAMN RECKLESS

You know it's dumb love
When you find it in a club
Moments like these make decisions tough
In a place here with us

Baby, yeah
You don't know why
And you don't really care

Not knowing about and you're filled with doubt

And this crowd will lay it there
But you don't really know
If she'll make it with you home
But she knows I got it
She sees that, I'm ready to go
Living young & reckless
