

Cold Shower

Salem Al Fakir

I thought I was the greatest one
Of course I wasn't
I've tried to keep it up, I was already done
Soon and transparent

Next time I'll try to clear my mind
That won't ever happen
Seven days later I messed up and nowhere to be found
I say...

Cold shower is a blessing
Maybe tomorrow you can answer the question
Is cold shower really a blessing?
Cold shower is a blessing
Maybe tomorrow you can answer the question
Is cold shower really a blessing?

I can't afford to lose it all again
Hide your sweet pickle
But I'm just like all the other worried men
Stop the same quibbles

Once you get it up, you want to keep 'em going, no need to tumble down
It's like a bicycle
You better remember, people talking, it's a small town

Cold shower is a blessing
Maybe tomorrow you can answer the question
Is cold shower really a blessing?
Cold shower is a blessing
Maybe tomorrow you can answer the question
Is cold shower really a blessing?

This is better
Alone and away from all the heat
Just stick together
'Cause then you don't need to worry about...

Cold shower is a blessing
Maybe tomorrow you can answer the question
Is cold shower really a blessing?

Cold shower is a blessing
Maybe tomorrow you can answer the question
Is cold shower really a blessing?
