

Hypatia

Salem

At times I do have visions of the past

Some might last but most die fast

Like one Egyptian woman's dire fate

It's easy to destroy hard to create

Cinaron consuming her mangled severed limbs

Cyril is assuming that from now on he's at ease

Drag her off her lofty throne

Take her to Caesareum church

Blind should always lead the blind

And the brave will walk alone

(It's time to burn her blood

The witch will soon be dead)

Savagely butchered skinned to please a god

Brutally mangled it's time to burn her blood

Savagely butchered skinned to please a god

Brutally mangled it's time to burn her blood

Cinaron consuming her mangled severed limbs

Cyril is assuming that from now on he's at ease

Serapeum on fire

Idolatry must end

One last symbol remaining

The witch will soon be dead
