

Winter's Tear

Salem

When autumn leaves are falling

Nature's calling me to stay at home

And if the rain is pouring

My heart's soring and I'm all alone

I wish I could be understood

It's only fair but they all stare

I'm at a loss at such a cost

I wish that you were here to stay

Say that it isn't so

Don't tell me that it's time to go

Don't ever be the one to know

Just say that it isn't so

In winter's tear when no one's near

I find condolence in the past

I reminisce and then get pissed

Her image haunts me like a ghost

I wish I could be understood

It's only fair but they all stare

I'm at a loss at such a cost

I wish that you were here to stay

Say that it isn't so

Don't tell me that it's time to go

Don't ever be the one to know

Just say that it isn't so

When autumn leaves are falling

Nature's calling me to stay at home

And if the rain is pouring

My heart's soring and I'm all alone

I wish I could be understood

It's only fair but they all stare

I'm at a loss at such a cost

I wish that you were here to stay

Say that it isn't so

Don't tell me that it's time to go

Don't ever be the one to know

Just say that it isn't so
