

Fractures

Saliva

I fear my reflection
In need of protection
Can't trust my own actions
Should I be locked away?
The voice keeps on askin'
Who am I attackin'
Why am I attractin'
The darkness in the day

I hate the way I make me feel
I feel the way I make me hate
I hate the way I make me feel
I feel the way I make me hate

I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
The one that's always scared of me
I don't wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
Being my own enemy
I need to leave this hell
God knows I need the help
I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Broken, so I'm breaking free

I bleed through the fractures
In search of the rapture
Not sure what comes after
When I am who I was
Every other breath I'm takin'
Every other death I'm fakin'
It's just another mess I'm makin'
In the mirror, turn and run

I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
The one that's always scared of me
I don't wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
Being my own enemy
I need to leave this hell
God knows I need the help
I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Broken, so I'm breaking free

I hate the way I make me feel
I feel the way I make me hate
I hate the way I make me feel
I feel my own reflection
I hate the way I make me feel
I feel the way I make me hate
I hate the way I make me feel
I bleed through the fractures

I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
The one that's always scared of me

I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
The one that's always scared of me
I don't wanna live, wanna live, wanna live
Being my own enemy

I need to leave this hell
God knows I need the help
I don't wanna be, wanna be, wanna be
Broken, so I'm breaking free

Breaking free
