

Helpless

Saliva

I've been through hell, I've been through pain
These scars don't even know my name
The walls keep closing in on me
My mind's at war but no victory

And I've got nothing left to lose
So why am I calling out to you?

Hello, hello, hello
I'm sinking, I'm reaching
Hello, hello, hello
I feel reckless, I'm helpless

It's all too much for me to take
When the morning comes could I fade away
I suffocate my own defeat
My soul is my worst enemy

And I'm crying out for the last time

Hello, hello, hello
I'm sinking, I'm reaching
Hello, hello, hello
I feel reckless, I'm helpless
So take it away, take it away
Take it away, take it away
So take it away, take it away
Take it away, take it away

I'm sorry
I can't hold on
Forgive me

Hello, hello, hello
I'm sinking, I'm reaching
Hello, hello, hello
I feel reckless, I'm helpless
So take it away, take it away
Take it away, take it away
So take it away, take it away
Take it away, take it away

I'm sorry
Forgive me
Take it away, take it away
