

Trust

Saliva

You're a liar, liar

Fuckin with my head again
I can't stand the person you've become
Can you face yourself in the mirror or are you
Too blind to see anyone but yourself

What a shame I'm a fool
You're to blame for everything
But I know that I must walk away before I lose my control

Trust, there is no more love
Can you see you're dying
You're a liar, liar
Trust, there is no more love
Can you see you're crying
You're a liar, liar

Lie down in the bed you created
Can you feel the pain you've caused
Don't run away, you have to face it
Nothing left to save you now from yourself

What a shame I'm a fool
You're to blame for everything
But I know that I must walk away before I lose my control

Trust, there is no more love
Can you see you're dying
You're a liar, liar
Trust, there is no more love
Can you see you're crying
You're a liar, liar

Trust, there is no more love
Can you see you're dying
You're a liar, liar
Trust, there is no more love
Can you see you're crying
You're a liar, liar
You're a liar, liar
You're a liar, liar
