

Warzone

Saliva

Cool words, cold soul
Always demanding control
I'd bet your bones
If it meant keepin' my place on the totem pole
One word and I'll make this place blow
I'm not fuckin' around, you better keep your mouth closed
It's my world, you're all in my show
So do what I say when I say go

I am a warzone
No one's friend, everyone's enemy
They call my psycho
But I can see the world is rigged against me
I am a warzone
If you're goin' down, you're goin' with me, yeah (Ah-ah)
I'll be the blackhole
So you can see that nothing is bigger than me (Ah-ah)

All bite, all teeth
I'm the big man you all need
All work, no weak
I can be your new Constantine

I am a warzone
No one's friend, everyone's enemy (Ah-ah)
They call my psycho
But I can see the world is rigged against me (Ah-ah)
I am a warzone
If you're goin' down, you're goin' with me, yeah (Ah-ah)
I'll be the blackhole
So you can see that nothing is bigger than me (Ah-ah)

I won't bury myself in my misery
If I'm goin down, you're going with me
I won't bury myself in my misery
If I'm goin' down, you're goin' with me
You're goin' with me
You're goin' with me
You're goin' with me

I am a warzone
No one's friend, everyone's enemy (Ah-ah)
They call my psycho
But I can see the world is rigged against me (Ah-ah)
I am a warzone
If you're goin' down, you're goin' with me, yeah (Ah-ah)
I'll be the blackhole
So you can see that nothing is bigger than me (Ah-ah)
