I came to the sign of the whispering dove
It said "Lay your burden down for a greater love".
Feel the melting clay as the mask falls away
And you walk into the great unknown.
(Set the control to zero)

A strange new light is revealing the masquerade!
A strange new world is opening my eyes day by day.
A strange new light is revealing the masquerade!
A strange new world is opening my eyes day by day!
Omatopa kahuma tianna he omatopa

I came to the sign where the fool on the hill
Said "Don't try to win the game 'cos you never will".
Don't try to hide from the mystery inside
You'll find the road to paradise.

A strange new light is revealing the masquerade!
A strange new world is opening my eyes day by day.
A strange new light is revealing the masquerade!
A strange new world is opening my eyes day by day!
