

A Slower Death

Saltwound

Fuck you

Witness a death by any other name
Let the sycophants fall to their knees
Singing songs they won't ever
Understand
I am their king
Hung by my neck

Heavy is the head that
Wears the crown
They'll applaud as I fucking drown

I watch my friends all suffer inside
Make one mistake and get eaten alive
Held by the mercy of the snakes
It's a slower death
We've condemned ourselves to die

Give it all
Just to fucking die

Witness a death by any other name
Let the sycophants fall to their knees
Singing songs they won't ever
Understand
I am their king
Hung by my neck

Receding shadows
In the black of the night
Fade away
Like the light from my eyes

I
Live
In constant despair

And now I look
Into the fire
Into the land painted red
Show me your passion
I'll show you a slow fucking death

Motherfuck you all
Move
