

Drowning

Saltwound

Cut out my fucking tongue
For the things I will say
Vilify me
Cut off my head
And put me up on display
You had your chance
And you let it fall off
Imma kill all
You motherfuckers
And let God sort you out

You pushed me
To my breaking point
You sought to
Make me the villain in your head
Then dismiss and forget
All the shit you put me through
For three fucking years
I was drowning for you

You're the deadweight
I pulled behind me
You're the past that
I try to unsee
It makes me smile
Just to watch you fall
Try your fucking best
But it's never enough

Wait please, don't do this to me
I didn't mean anything
Shut the fuck up
I'm gonna beat you to fucking death
Commit you to oblivion

Bitch
Say my fucking name

Ashes to ashes
You'll die
In dust
No remembrance
Fuck you all
